

MEDIA ALERT

Paris, April 17 2019

Following the devastating fire that ravaged Notre-Dame Cathedral in Paris on Monday April 15th, Sodexo has pledged to offer one million meals to the artisans, vocational trade workers and associations that will support the reconstruction of this emblematic symbol of French cultural heritage, known world-wide.

Denis Machuel, Chief Executive Officer, Sodexo said: “With our employees, we are dedicated to serving the women and men who will devote themselves to rebuilding Notre-Dame. Contributing each day to their invaluable efforts is our way to join the impressive collective momentum that brings us together.”
